

Staff Participation in Community Activities

1180

De Anza and Foothill Colleges can best perform their mission of being community colleges if members of the staff assume individual responsibility for participation in some type of community activity; therefore, the administration is directed to encourage such participation.

Approved 1/7/63
Amended 11/15/93