

Textbooks and Manuals

6140

The District will not equip students with textbooks, manuals, or courseware required in courses. The College bookstores should have readily available such materials for purchase by students at standard costs.

Texts will be selected from those listed on the course outline and may be supplemented by additional materials.

Unless there is a compelling reason to change, a textbook once selected for a course will be used for at least two years.

See Board Policy 4185

Approved 6/3/63
Amended 11/17/71, 3/2/98