HEARINGS: ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA

Public

Rich Copenhagen, student trustee from Peralta Community College District, congratulated the trustees on the ability to produce not only quality academics but also quality students who are involved in civic engagement. He commended student trustee Kinner saying that she is one of the single most influential and recognized students in the state. Mr. Copenhagen expressed appreciation for her work and thanked the board and administration for their support.

Students

There were no comments from students.

Staff

Acting Chancellor Judy Miner
• Reported on the first meeting of the Science Learning Institute’s advisory board that consists of 12 members who are well known in the STEM arena. She acknowledged instructor Robert Cormia who presented at the meeting.
• Reported on a visit by the former Chilean Minister of Education who is interested in developing a community college system in Chile. She was referred to Foothill College during her visit to UC Berkeley.
• President Miner met with the CEO of Meridian International College and Vice Consul from the Philippines. Meridian International is a business, arts and technology college. The meeting was arranged by Gertrude Gregorio, retired dean of Adaptive Learning, whose goal was to establish a college in the Philippines in honor of her mother. The meeting was followed by a visit by the Consul General and two members of the Philippine congress who wanted to see the campus first hand. President Miner expressed hopes of future partnerships with Meridian International.

Acting De Anza President Christina Espinosa-Pieb
Vice President Espinosa-Pieb read an email from a former De Anza student that was prompted by news of the retirement of an inspirational instructor, William Nagel. The former student is now a news graphics designer for a bay area television station. He attributes his current position to Mr. Nagel and his classes.

De Anza Academic President Karen Chow
Reported that she and Foothill Academic President Dolores Davison attended the Area B academic senate meeting. President Chow will be presenting resolutions at the statewide plenary in April:

• Resolution in support of Assemblyman Paul Fong’s Student Success Infrastructure Act, a bill that would provide some infrastructure support for recommendations in the Student Success Act.
• Resolution that critiques the Legislative Analysts Office analysis that identified cutting athletics as a way to save money in the community college system.

Board

Vice President Laura Casas Frier
Vice President Casas Frier reported on her trip to Washington, D.C. as part of a Silicon Valley delegation that met with congressmen, senators, homeland security, and White House staff to discuss the Dream Act, immigration issues and reform, and deportation issues.

Trustee Betsy Bechtel
Trustee Bechtel reported on the Silicon Valley Regional Economic Summit hosted by Silicon Valley Leadership Group and Marvell Semiconductor held on March 30 and was attended by Chancellor Thor, President Barram, Student Trustee Emily Kinner, and Vice President John Mummert. Trustee Bechtel expressed great pride when Student Trustee Kinner spoke very effectively on the importance of education.

De Anza Student Trustee Emily Kinner
• At the Regional Economic Summit she asked the community to invest in community colleges via internships and training, thus sending a message to the state and federal governments that students are worth the investment.
• Student Trustee Kinner is working with Susan Stecklair of American Association of University Women, to establish a branch of AAUW at De Anza. She thanked Trustee Bechtel for providing that connection.
• She was one of three students who addressed the Sacramento Bee editorial board on the “middle-class scholarship” introduced by Assembly Speaker John Perez. The article was published on March 28.
• Student Trustee Kinner will be testifying on April 11 on SB 1052 (Steinberg and Alquist) Public Postsecondary Education: California Open Education Resources Council.
• Lastly, Student Trustee Kinner attended the Cupertino Star Awards where former trustee and student trustee Dolly Sandoval was honored as citizen of the year.

Foothill Student Trustee Stephanie McGee
• Reported that the ASFC will be holding student government elections when spring quarter commences.
• Student Trustee McGee will be attending a CalWorks workshop that will focus on effectively navigating through the program while receiving benefits. She has also been asked to participate on a CalWorks workshop panel in Monterey.
