

Foothill-De Anza Community College District
DISTRICT/SENATES OPENING DAY ON THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17
(COLLEGES' OPENING DAY ON FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18)

We're going greener this year!

* No printed program. If you wish, you may download the presentations from the district homepage effective Tuesday, September 15 (<http://www.fhda.edu>)

* Recycled scratch paper will be provided for taking notes.

* Lunch is on your own. The Multicultural Staff Association is hosting a social with light refreshments for all employees in the Campus Center Plaza after the program.

Foothill food services will be open until 2 p.m.

DISTRICT/SENATES OPENING DAY
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17
Smithwick Theater, Foothill College

7:30-8:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast/Meet and Greet

8:30-9:30 a.m. Welcome, Introductions and Recognitions
Update on Chancellor Search by Board President Betsy Bechtel
Remarks by Interim Chancellor Mike Brandy

9:30-11:45 a.m. "Accreditation 101: Same Rules, Different Game"

Get the scoop about accreditation, why everyone has a role to play and what's at stake. Presenters from the ranks of the faculty, staff and administration include Mike Brandy, interim chancellor; Fred Sherman, vice chancellor of technology; Christina Espinosa-Pieb, De Anza's vice president of instruction; Katie Townsend-Merino, Foothill's vice president of instruction and institutional research; Lois Jenkins, president of the De Anza Classified Senate; Anne Argyriou, president of the De Anza Academic Senate; Dolores Davison, president of the the Foothill Academic Senate; Leslye Noone, president of the Foothill Classified Senate; Rosemary Arca, Foothill's student learning outcomes coordinator; Lucy Rodriguez, project coordinator in Foothill's Office of Instruction and Institutional Research; Cynthia Lee-Klawender, vice president of De Anza's Academic Senate, and Daniel Peck, institutional researcher, Foothill.

For more information about accreditation on your campus, the following web pages will be ready to go by Tuesday, September 15:

Foothill:

<http://www.foothill.edu/president/accreditation.php>

De Anza:

<http://www.deanza.edu/accreditation>

12-1 p.m. Multicultural Staff Association Social
Light refreshments, open to all

Campus Center Courtyard